IN THE ABSTRACT:

Please replace the existing Abstract with the following Abstract.

A method and system for comparing first and second signal arrays is provided. To each of a plurality of pixels x_i in the first array, a pixel $T(x_i)$ in the second array is associated. A linear regression analysis is then applied to the ordered pairs of numbers $(x_i, T(x_i))$ so as to produce a slope.